

EVENT REGULATIONS
“Witcher s3 Premiere”

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. These Regulations (hereinafter referred to as: “Regulations”) was issued pursuant to the provisions of the Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of Mass Events, consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2023, item 616, (hereinafter referred to as: the “Act”) and other provisions whose provisions directly affect the organisation of the Event or its course.
2. The Regulations are issued by the organiser of the event named: “Witcher s3 Premiere” (hereinafter referred to as the “Event”), to be held on 24-25 June 2023 in EC1 Łódź – City of culture at ul. Targowa 1/3, 90-022 Łódź.
3. The event organiser is Live spółka z ograniczoną odpowiedzialnością with its registered office in Gdańsk (ul. Piastowska 67, 80-363 Gdańsk), entered into the Register of Entrepreneurs of the National Court Register under KRS number 0000469064 whose documents are kept by the District Court Gdańsk-Północ in Gdańsk, 7th Commercial Division - National Court Register (hereinafter referred to as the “Organiser”).
4. The Regulations are addressed to all persons who will stay at the Event Venue during the Event. Every person staying at the Event Venue during the Event is obliged to comply with the provisions of the Regulations.
5. The following terms used in the Regulations shall have the following meaning:
 - a. “Event Venue” means a fenced area where the Event is held or any other place to which the Event may be moved for important reasons and which will be communicated to the public before the Event. The Event Venue will be divided into sectors to which access will be specified by the Organiser in the Regulations;
 - b. “Ticket” means a single-person permit to enter the Event Venue in the public sector;
 - c. “Event Participant” means a person participating in the Event based on a valid Ticket, invitation or identifier issued by the Organiser. Who may participate in the Event:
 - an adult,
 - a minor above 16 but under 18 only after his/her statutory representative or other authorised guardian has signed, not later than before the minor enters the Event Venue, a statement on the participation of the minor in the Event and on being fully responsible (including financially) for that minor (as per the template included in Appendix 1 to the Regulations);
 - d. A “minor” is a person under 18;
 - e. “Security and Information Service” include employees of security agencies appointed by the Organiser to take care of the safety of persons participating in the Event, including to check the Participants’ right to enter the Event Venue. Members of the Security and Information Service have badges placed in a visible place, containing: name of the exhibitor, identification number and photo, validity date, stamp and signature of the issuer;
 - f. “GDPR” means Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (Official Journal of the EU L. of 2016, No. 119, p. 1, as amended).

II. RULES FOR ACCESS

1. A Ticket gives the right to enter the Event only to the holder.
2. Tickets may not be resold.
3. The Organiser informs that pursuant to Article 133 of the Act of 20 May 1971 Misdemeanours Code: "Whoever purchases tickets for artistic, entertainment or sporting events with the purpose to resell, or whoever sells such tickets for profit, is subject to detention, restriction of freedom or a fine. Attempt, incitement and aid are punishable."
4. The Organiser informs that the unique QR code placed on each Ticket entitles the holder to access the Event Venue on the day and at the time for which it was assigned. Change of the date or time of entry to the Event is not allowed.

III. ACCESS TO THE EVENT

1. Access to the Event Venue is granted only to the Ticket holder who, at the first entrance to the Event Venue, will be registered in an electronic system, which will make it possible to determine that the Ticket has been used for entry to the Event Venue and will prevent another person from using it again to enter the Event Venue.
2. Each Event participant is obliged to keep the Ticket throughout their stay in the Event Venue. Moreover, at the entrance to the Event Venue, the identity of the person holding the Ticket will be verified. Verification will be made on the basis of an ID containing a photo (an ID card, driving licence or a passport). If the data on the Ticket is found to be inconsistent with the data on the ID, such a person will not be entitled to enter the Event Venue or to other claims towards the Organiser.
3. Regardless of fulfilling of the conditions indicated in section 1 and section 2, access to the Event Venue is not granted to the following persons:
 - a. persons for whom a decision was issued prohibiting them to enter a mass event or obliging them to keep away from venues of mass events, issued by a court in connection with the conditional suspension of imprisonment or against a minor pursuant to Article 6 (2) of the Act of 26 October 1982 on Proceedings in Juvenile Cases;
 - b. a person against whom a foreign or club ban has been imposed within the meaning of the Act;
 - c. a person who refuses to be subject to activities referred to in Chapter IV(12)(a)-(c) of the Regulations,
 - d. persons under visible influence of alcohol, intoxicants, psychotropic substances or other similar substances,
 - e. persons carrying weapons or other objects, materials, products, beverages, agents or substances referred to in Chapter IV section 8 of the Regulations,
 - f. persons demonstrating aggressive, provocative or rude behaviour or otherwise posing threat to public security or order.
4. The Event Organiser may refuse access to the Event and participation for persons:
 - a. holding no Ticket,
 - b. wearing clothing which poses threat (e.g. boots with metal endings),
 - c. equipped with whistles, vuvuzelas and other noisy gadgets,
 - d. whose external appearance prevents identification,
 - e. possessing plastic or glass containers, cans, etc.,
 - f. possessing other dangerous items; the assessment of whether objects are dangerous is made by the Security and Information Service,
 - g. holding no ID containing a photo (an ID card, driving licence or a passport),
 - h. holding no documents referred to in section 6.

5. Access to the Event Venue is granted to persons holding a Ticket, upon fulfilling the conditions specified in the Regulations, in particular in this chapter. Leaving the Event Venue during the Event prevents re-entry to the Event Venue, unless the person leaving reports to the Security and Information Service and receives a confirmation of the intention to return. The confirmation may be issued in the form of a document or other mark (e.g. a stamp) which will be provided to the participant by the Security and Information Service. Notwithstanding the foregoing, returning to the Event Venue is possible only for persons holding Tickets.
6. Access to the Event Venue may be granted to a person who is over 18 on the Event day. Subject to Chapter I(5)(c), minors over 16 may enter the Event Venue if they hold the following documents:
 - a. own ID card containing a photo (that includes a school ID),
 - b. a photocopy of the parent's ID (a personal ID card, driving licence or a passport),
 - c. a signed parent consent to the minor's participation in the Event and a statement of the statutory representative or a person authorised by him/her to bear full responsibility (including financial liability) for that minor – the specimen statement constitutes Appendix 1 to the Regulations.
7. The Organiser informs that in the event that restrictions, orders or prohibitions are introduced in the territory of the Republic of Poland in connection with preventing, counteracting and combating diseases, in particular COVID-19, concerning the organisation of events, the number of Event Participants may be limited, in accordance with the limits applicable on the Event date.
8. If, during the Event, provisions are in force, making participation in events conditional on the fulfilment of additional epidemic security conditions by the participants, e.g. the presentation of a valid vaccination certificate, or a negative test result for the virus, participation in the Event will depend on the fulfilment of the above conditions by the Participant.
9. Persons who cannot access the Event Venue due to the above restrictions or failure to meet the conditions referred to in these Regulations, are not entitled to any claims against the Organiser, in particular for reimbursement of travel, accommodation or other costs incurred in connection with the planned participation in the Event.
10. Information on the obligations of Event Participants will also be placed on the boards located at the entry to the Event Venue and on the Event Venue. The Organiser has the right to refuse access to the Event and to remove from the Event Venue Participants who do not comply with the above-mentioned rules of conduct, without the right to complaints and other claims against the Organiser or entities cooperating with the Organiser in organising the Event.

IV. ORGANISATION AND ORDER RULES IN FORCE AT THE EVENT VENUE

1. The Organiser will designate areas to which access will be limited or possible only for the Organiser's guests and services. Areas which are not open to the public include in particular: the stage and back stage facilities, production zone, dressing rooms, technical and organisational rooms.
2. The Organiser ensures the safety of persons present at the Event and order during the Event through:
 - a. Security and Information Service distinguished by elements of clothing;
 - b. appointing a security manager in charge of the Security and Information Service who organises the work of security services;
 - c. providing medical assistance and sanitary facilities;
 - d. designating escape routes and access routes for rescue services and the Police;
 - e. ensuring conditions for organising communication between entities ensuring the Event's security;

- f. providing rescue and fire-fighting equipment and extinguishing agents necessary to secure the Event with regard to rescue and fire-fighting operations.
3. Event Participants and all other persons present at the Event Venue are obliged to follow the instructions of the Security and Information Service. Refusal to comply with such instructions may only result from their conflict with the generally applicable provisions of law.
4. Minors under 16 participate in the Event under the responsibility of persons who have signed the Statement referred to in Chapter I (4) (c) of the Regulations.
5. Members of the Security and Information Service performing activities as part of the Event are equipped with appropriate personal protective equipment.
6. Event Participants and all other persons present at the Event Venue are obliged to act in a manner that does not endanger the safety of other persons present at the Event, in particular to comply with the provisions of the Regulations. It is forbidden to destroy buildings and objects located at the Venue, to destroy the greenery, litter the area, destroy signs and information boards, advertising media, devices and equipment located at the Event Venue, etc. The Participants are obliged to use sanitary rooms only in accordance with their intended purpose.
7. All persons present at the Event Venue are obliged to carry a valid Ticket and the ID card indicated in the Regulations.
8. It is forbidden to bring in or carry during the Event:
 - a. weapons or other dangerous objects,
 - b. explosives,
 - c. pyrotechnic articles,
 - d. materials posing fire hazard,
 - e. alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, unless they have been purchased in food courts at the Event Venue and bringing them to the Event Venue is permitted by the Act,
 - f. food, unless it has been purchased in food courts at the Event Venue, and bringing it to the Event Venue is permitted by the Act and excluding persons whose health condition requires a specialist diet confirmed by a medical certificate,
 - g. umbrellas ending with a spike,
 - h. selfie sticks,
 - i. drones,
 - j. laser pointers,
 - k. intoxicants or psychotropic substances,
 - l. professional cameras and video cameras. It is allowed to carry only cameras in mobile phones. Persons carrying unauthorised equipment must not that they may have to deposit that equipment, the cost of which is PLN 50.
9. It is also prohibited:
 - a. to bring dogs and other animals to the Event Venue, except for dogs assisting disabled persons, after meeting the conditions specified in the Act of 27 August 1997 on professional and social rehabilitation and employment of disabled persons (i.e. Journal of Laws of 2021, item 573, as amended), and in particular provided that the assistance dog is equipped with a harness and that the disabled person holds a certificate confirming the status of the assistance dog and a certificate confirming the validity of required veterinary vaccinations,
 - b. to make any recording (including taking photos or filming using any devices, not excluding mobile phones, regardless of the resolution) of the "Witcher" series episodes presented during the Event,
 - c. to take actions aimed at interrupting or disrupting the Event,
 - d. to use offensive, vulgar and indecent language, to promote and display obscene and racist slogans, call for conflicts and insult any persons or institutions,

- e. to conduct any commercial or other for-profit activity, as well as cash collections, without the Organiser's consent
 - f. to conduct any advertising, marketing or promotional activity not previously agreed with the Organiser,
 - g. to use of drones on the Venue and over the Event Venue ,
 - h. to consume alcohol in places not intended for this purpose and not designated by the Organiser, as well as to consume alcohol which has not been purchased in designated areas of the Event Venue,
 - i. to climb the construction and elements of the technical infrastructure as well as enter areas which are not intended for Event Participants,
 - j. to block exits and escape routes, access routes for emergency services, hydrants and other devices necessary in the event of a rescue or fire-fighting operations during the Event,
 - k. to throw objects,
 - l. to make fire,
 - m. to display banners.
10. A minor may not participate in events only intended by the Organiser for adults.
11. In the scope specified in the Act and executive regulations, the Organiser is entitled to record the Event, in particular the behaviour of persons, by means of devices recording images and sounds. Materials collected as a result recording the Event which may constitute evidence permitting initiation of criminal proceedings or of cases of petty offences, or evidence of value in any such proceedings in place, which the Organiser immediately shows to the District Prosecutor having jurisdiction over the Event Venue or the Police. Materials collected during the recording of the Event, which do not contain evidence allowing for the initiation of criminal proceedings or proceedings in petty offence cases or evidence significant for such proceedings, are stored after the end of the Event for a period of at least one month, but not longer than 90 days, and then destroyed under supervision.
12. Pursuant to the provisions of the Act, Security and Information Service, presenting a visible ID, are entitled to:
- a. check and determine the rights of persons to participate in the Event, including in particular those specified in Chapter III (1) and (2), and in the case of discovering no such rights – to refuse access to the Event Venue or requesting them to leave the Event;
 - b. perform ID checks to establish identity,
 - c. inspect baggage and clothing if they suspect that the inspected persons are bringing or carrying items referred to in section 8,
 - d. issue order instructions to persons disturbing public order or violating the Regulations, and in the event of failure to comply with such instructions – to request them to leave the Event;
 - e. apprehend persons posing a direct threat to the protected objects and persons committing prohibited acts, for immediate transfer to the Police;
 - f. use direct coercive measures referred to in Article 12(1)(1)(a) and (b), (2)(a) and (12)(a) of the Act of 24 May 2013 on direct coercive measures and firearms in cases referred to in Article 11(1) and (2) of that Act.
13. The Security and Information Service are obliged to remove from the Event Venue persons who interfere with public order or act contrary to the Regulations.
14. A member of the Security and Information Service checks whether a person has the right to be present at the Event by:
- a. checking whether that person has a valid Ticket, invitation or badge,
 - b. comparing of the presented identity document with the data on the Ticket.
15. If the inspected luggage or clothing is found to contain items forbidden to be brought to and carried at the Event, a member of the Security and Information Service refuses access to the Event to the person possessing such items or removes such a person from the Event Venue. Security and Information Service refuse access to the Event to the persons referred to in Chapter III(3)(a)-(f) of the Regulations.

16. Persons who, in accordance with the Regulations or the Act, have been refused access to the Event or are removed, are not entitled to a claim against the Organiser or entities cooperating in the organisation of the Event.
17. The Organiser ensures fire safety in accordance with the applicable provisions of law.

V. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTICIPANTS

1. The Event participant has the right:
 - a. to stay at the Event Venue during the Event, i.e. at the time specified in the Ticket assigned to the Event Participant,
 - b. to obtain information on the location of medical, catering and sanitary facilities, amenities and safety requirements specified by the Organiser or rescue services,
 - c. to use equipment, including sanitary and hygienic facilities as well as disinfectants made available for general use in a manner consistent with their intended purpose,
 - d. to seek medical assistance.
2. The Event Participant or any other person present at the Event Venue may be exposed to continuous sound which may cause hearing damage. Event participants participate at their own risk. Pregnant women are particularly at risk.
3. The Organiser makes a recording of the Event for the purpose of keeping documentation and promotion/advertisement of the Event, the Organiser or the sponsor and partners of the Event, for the production of reporting materials, distribution of music or audiovisual publications and other activities of the Organiser, as well as sponsors and partners of the Event. The image of persons staying on the Event Venue may be recorded and then disseminated for documentation, reporting, advertising and promotional purposes, to which the Event Participant agrees upon entering the Event Venue. The Event can be transmitted live.

VI. PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

1. The Organiser is the controller of personal data:
 - a. in the form of full names included on the Tickets. The processing of such data is necessary for the conclusion and performance of the agreement (Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR), including participation in the Event. Providing such personal data is a contractual condition for participating in the Event, and the failure to provide it results in the lack of access to the Event. It will be stored for the period necessary to perform the Agreement and, after its expiry, until the expiry of the limitation period for any mutual claims of the Parties;
 - b. in the form of full names and images of Ticket holders indicated in the identity document shown at the entrance to the Event Venue. This data will be processed only for the purpose of verifying the identity of the Ticket holder. The processing of such personal data is necessary for the purposes resulting from legitimate interests pursued by the controller (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR) and is a contractual condition for participating in the Event (Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR), and the failure to provide it results in the lack of access to the Event. It will be processed only at the entrance to the Event Venue during identity verification;
 - c. specified in the Statements referred to in Chapter I (4) (c) of the Regulations. The processing

- of such personal data is necessary for the purposes resulting from legitimate interests pursued by the controller (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR) and is a contractual condition for participating in the Event (Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR), and the failure to provide it results in the lack of access of the minor to the Event. It will be stored for the period necessary to achieve the above-mentioned objectives, not longer than for 6 months from the Event date;
- d. persons submitting complaints to the Organiser in connection with the Event in the form of full name and contact details (correspondence address, e-mail address) provided in the complaint by its author. The processing of such personal data is necessary for the purposes resulting from the legitimate interests pursued by the controller (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR) and is a condition for considering and responding to a complaint. Failure to provide such personal data results in the inability to process and respond to the complaint. Such data shall be stored for the period necessary to process and respond to the complaint, and thereafter until the expiry of the limitation period for possible mutual claims of the Parties;
 - e. persons whose image or voice was recorded in the case described in Chapter V(3) – the basis for the processing of personal data is the consent of the Event Participant (Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR), expressed upon entering the Event Venue. The consent is voluntary. The personal data in question will be processed only for the purpose specified in Chapter V(3) and stored for the period in which materials containing such personal data is used;
 - f. in the case described in Chapter IV(7) of the Regulations, the basis for the processing of personal data is the fulfilment of the legal obligation imposed on the controller under the Act (Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR). Such data will be stored in accordance with the Act, i.e. during the Event and after its end for a period of at least one month, but not longer than 90 days.
2. The personal data referred to in section 1 may be transferred or entrusted for processing to entities with which the Organiser cooperates in connection with the Event.
 3. The personal data referred to in section 1 shall not be subject to profiling and may be processed in the European Economic Area, but also outside, but only if the territory offers a sufficient level of personal data protection security.
 4. Persons whose data is processed by the Organiser as a controller, have the right to request the Organiser to access and rectify their personal data, and in cases and on the terms specified in the GDPR, to:
 - request the controller to erase, restrict the processing and transfer their personal data,
 - withdraw consent to data processing at any time, which does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal (this applies to data processed on the basis of a consent provided by a given person),
 - object to the processing of personal data.
 5. Persons whose data is processed by the Organiser as the controller have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, i.e. the President of the Personal Data Protection Office, ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warsaw.

VII. COMPLAINTS

1. Any complaints may be submitted in writing within 14 days from the end of the Event to the following address of the Organiser: Live sp. z o.o. ul. Piastowska 67, 80-363 Gdańsk.
2. The Organiser processes complaints submitted in accordance with section 1 within 30 days of their delivery to the Organiser by registered mail.

VIII. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. Official programs and gadgets will be sold only on the Event Venue.
2. The Organiser shall not be liable for the effects of Force Majeure. Force Majeure means an event beyond the control of the Organiser, which renders the performance of obligations impossible or results in deeming it impossible due to the existing circumstances. The Force Majeure circumstances include in particular: weather conditions, failures or disruptions in the operation of devices supplying electricity, heat, light, pandemics or epidemics, including the COVID-19 pandemic, acts of war or actions of state or local authorities with regarding to formulating policies, rights and regulations affecting the performance of obligations, including emergencies introduced in particular in connection with the threat of war, national bereavement.
3. The Organiser shall not be liable for items left at the Event Venue.
4. The Organiser reserves the right to cancel the Event without prior notice. The Organiser shall not be obliged to make any compensation to the holder of the Ticket. The Holder of the Ticket is not entitled to any other claims against the Organiser or its cooperating entities, in particular for reimbursement of travel, accommodation and other costs incurred in connection with the planned participation in the Event.
5. The Organiser reserves the right to determine changes in the Event for justified reasons, e.g. force majeure, threat of warfare, restrictions or limitations related to diseases, etc., as well as the right to change the Event programme without prior consultation and compensation for Ticket holders.
6. The Event sponsor status is granted only by the Organiser.
7. These Regulations are available
 - a. on the website: <https://probawiedzmina.pl/assets/files/regulamin-eventu.pdf>
 - b. in front of designated entrances to the Event Venue,
 - c. at the Organiser's site: Live sp. z o.o. ul. Piastowska 67, 80-363 Gdańsk.
8. Correspondence to the Organiser should be sent to the address indicated in chapter VII (1) in writing, by registered mail.
9. The Security Services may issue their own safety and fire protection instructions in accordance with the applicable provisions of law.
10. In matters not regulated herein, the provisions of the Act and the Civil Code shall apply.
11. The Regulations shall become effective on 12 June 2023.
12. The Organiser has the right to amend the Regulations, in particular due to the need to ensure the proper course of the Event and the security of Event Participants, as well as the requirements resulting from the provisions of law.

Appendix 1 to the Regulations

Statement of the Guardian of a Minor Participant: “Witcher s3 Premiere”

I, the undersigned, as a person entitled to exercise care over the minor Event Participant:

Participant’s full name:

Place of residence:

Date of birth:

according to the Regulations of the Event “Witcher s3 Premiere” hereby agree to the participation of the minor Participant in the Event on and I declare that I will bear full responsibility, including financial liability, in connection with the participation of the minor Participant in the Event.

I also declare that I am familiar with the Regulations of the Event “Witcher s3 Premiere” and I fully accept its provisions as binding on me and the minor Participant.

Guardian’s Data:

Full name:

Address of residence:

ID number:

Contact phone number:

Date

Guardian’s handwritten signature.....